ALILA MANGGIS – WINE SELECTION

In each section, wines are listed according to palate weight

CHAMPAGNE

Few wines captivate us to the extent that Champagne does. But then Champagne is not simply a wine – it is also a state of mind. Champagnes have a celebratory status no other wine has. Handed a glass of Champagne, we simply abandon ourselves to its implied pleasure, no thought required. More than any other wine, Champagne unlocks wine’s archetypal promise – JOY !

Hatten Jepun Sparkling Rose - NV	550
Cuvee Jean-Louis Blanc De Blancs- NV	750
Veuve Cliquot Ponsardin Brut “Yellow Lable” Champagne, France - NV	2 250

MEDIUM BODIED WHITE

White wines with a wide range of characteristics. Stylistically, mostly fresh with a good level of acidity, but with a slightly broader palate structure. Sometimes modestly enhanced by the sensations of oak barrel treatment. Food Match – Think white fleshed seafood, oysters, salads and some spicy foods.

Villa Maria Marlborough Pinot Gris, East Coast, New Zealand - 2017	850
Villa Maria Marlborough Sauv. Blanc, East Coast, New Zealand - 2017	850
Clos Henri Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough – New Zealand - 2012	1 350

FULL BODIED WHITE

White wines that display deep and full flavoured sensations in the mouth. Often structured around lower acidity, and enhanced by the flavours of oak barrel maturation and other winemaking techniques – resulting in complex and layered wines. Food Match – Think white meat dishes, dressed with rich flavoured sauces.

ROSE & LIGHT BODIED RED

Red wines that appear light and brilliant to the eye. Their structure on the palate is fresh and vibrant, usually releasing an abundance of fruit. The acidity is mostly high in the younger wines, softening with age. Sometimes, a little oak barrel treatment is evident, but kept to a minimum. Food Match – Think fatty or rich meat – duck -, also dishes with high acidity.

De Bortoli Sacred Hill Rose, Riverina - Australia – 2014	650
Ventisquero, Reserva Pinot Noir, Casablanca – Chile- 2015	790

FULL BODIED & AGED RED

These red wines have deep, dense colour spectrums. They are wines with complex flavour and broad tannin structures. Powerful and sometimes high in alcohol, most of these wines need time – aging – to become more mellow.

Vasse Felix Cabernet Merlot, Margaret River - Australia – 2013	1 200
Wallace Ben Glaetzer Shiraz Granache, Barossa Valley Australia – 2013	1 250

'The most exclusive coffee in the world'

Kopi luwak or civet coffee, is coffee made from the beans of coffee berries which have been eaten by the Asian Palm Civet (Paradoxurus hermaphroditus) and other related civets, then passed through its digestive tract. A civet eats the berries for their fleshy pulp. In its stomach, proteolytic enzymes seep into the beans, making shorter peptides and more free amino acids. Passing through a civet's intestines the beans are then defecated, keeping their shape. After gathering, thorough washing, sun drying, light roasting and brewing, these beans yield an aromatic coffee with much less bitterness, widely noted as the most expensive coffee in the world.
